The logo for the website is a simple lettering of the title of the website. The font used in the logo is Mason Serif and has been manipulated slightly. Any of the colors in the color palette are allowed for the logo as well as black and white.

VEIL OF THE DEEP

Color Palette

The color palette involves a series of dark to bright colors that resemble the depths of the sea. The use of these colors should be used to portray darkness, depth and uneasiness.

Typography

Garamond (taken from google fonts) will be the font used in the text body of the website and captions.

Additionally, for headers, or other big texts, Mason Serif will be used (taken from adobe fonts).
